Instrument and Articles of Government

Policy Area: Governance
Policy Lead: Director of Governance
Date of Approval: 30 June 2026

1. Policy Introduction

The Education Act 2011 allows for Colleges to put in place their own Instrument and Articles of Government (the College's legal constitution) providing that it meets the minimum requirements set out in Schedule 4 of the Act. The Education Act 2011 also reduced the number of basic legal requirements on General Further Education Colleges in England and allows greater flexibility as to how the College's legal framework is constructed.

This document consists of the Instrument and Articles of Government for The RNN Group and is compliant with Schedule 4 of the Education Act 2011. This document sets out the key legal structure of the Group, the role and responsibility of the Governors and key staffing appointments and the regulatory framework for RNN Group.

1. Responsibility and Implementation

The Governors of RNN Group are responsible for enacting and regularly reviewing these Instruments and Articles (I&A) of Government. The I&A can only be altered by the Governors of the College. All Group staff are required to comply with the regulations always set out in this document. The College is not permitted to act outside of these powers.

2. Policy Details - Instrument and Articles of Government

The attached document consists of the full Instrument and Articles of Government for RNN Group. It is based on the version published in 2008 and has been updated per the flexibilities granted through the Education Act 2011 by the Group's Governors.
